

Amy Bennett, MBA, PMP

VP, Product Strategy and Solutions

Amy Bennett is Vice President, Product Strategy and Solutions and has been with APTMetrics since its inception in 1995. Throughout her more than 25 years of experience in the field, Ms. Bennett has designed and implemented talent management solutions with Fortune® 100 and more companies across a range of industries, including pharmaceutical, financial, consumer products, manufacturing, aerospace and retail. Her many successful client engagements have contributed significantly to APTMetrics' reputation for unparalleled technical excellence and customer service.

Amy is a dynamic, results-oriented leader with expertise in designing and implementing measurement-based talent solutions. She excels at analyzing business challenges, identifying comprehensive, scalable solutions, and leading cross-functional teams to accomplish high-impact results.

Amy's experience includes the development and delivery of successful solutions for high-performing organizations in the areas of assessment and selection, structured interviews, leadership development, performance management, 360-degree feedback, job analysis and competency modeling, engagement surveys, and staffing for mergers and reorganizations.

Prior to joining APTMetrics, Amy worked at HRStrategies in Stamford, CT, where she provided consulting services in the areas of performance management, selection and multi-source feedback solutions.

Amy received her Bachelor of Arts degree in business administration and English from the University of California, Los Angeles. She received her MBA from Santa Clara University's Leavey School of Business and has certifications in project management (PMP) and change management. Amy is a member of the Beta Gamma Sigma International Business Honor Society and the Project Management Institute (PMI).
